Master Your Wealth

Bio

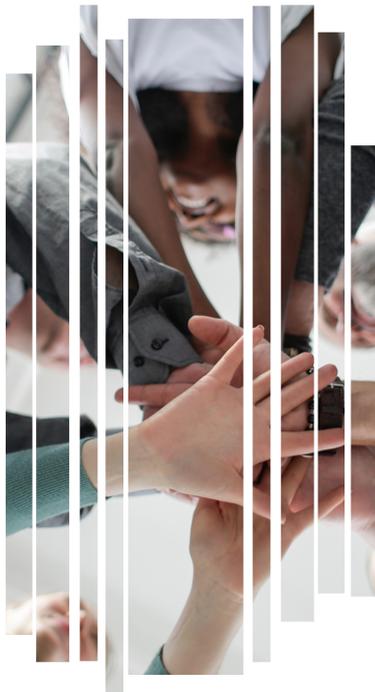

Bart Milatz is a speaker, mentor & author who helps purpose-driven people who chase a life that seems impossible to get to create roots and wings for the life they deserve. In his group programs and 1:1 coaching he helps you to clear what stops you, clarify what it is you truly want and create a meaningful life of freedom, joy & wealth.

Before starting mentoring & speaking Bart worked in finance, education, personal leadership and healing. Having survived many crisis in his life, like a suicidal mom in his teenage years, getting diagnosed with HIV in his early twenties and overcoming addiction, he learned through experience, trial & error how to get out of your own way to start creating the life you truly desire.

After thoroughly investing in his personal development and doing deep dives in his soul searching with the help of well-known coaches, he has developed a roadmap to overcome what limits you so you can start reclaiming your power, no matter what has happened or is happening in your life!

Over the past years, Bart has lived in Australia, Thailand, The Netherlands and now in the UK. He's proud to say that he's a global citizen and loves serving his clients from all around the world!
